

You are cordially invited to a seminar on the Management and Maintenance of Historic Burial Grounds

Offering the latest advice for the care and conservation of historic burial grounds.

Venue: Seagoe Parish Centre, 46 Seagoe Road,
Portadown, BT63 5HW

Date: 28|02|2020 Doors Open: 9.30am

Lunch and refreshments provided

THIS SEMINAR IS FREE BUT BOOKING IS ESSENTIAL

Through talks and practical workshops this FREE seminar will provide advice on:

- how to read the character of an historic burial ground to ensure its features are preserved
- maintenance acts which can help improve the state of an historic burial ground
- the latest health and safety regulations pertaining to historic burial grounds and memorials
- developing a burial ground management plan

Guest speakers include:

Caroline Maguire and Gail Russell
Historic Environment Division of Northern Ireland

John Tierney
www.historicgraves.com

Joseph Birt
Quam Consulting

Russell Brooks and Peter Hayman
National Association of Memorial Masons

Delia Graham
Heritage and Historic Place Consultant

Sean Madden
Fine Art Conservation

Places are limited. To book a place please contact:

Tony Morgan: tony.morgan@armaghbanbridgecraigavon.gov.uk
(028) 3831 3604

David Weir: david.weir@armaghbanbridgecraigavon.gov.uk
(028) 3831 3675